LETTER FROM THE OWNERS

Things are off and running in the motorcycle world! We cannot believe how many bike blessings have popped up in the last couple of years. It's crazy how many there actually are, but it's nice to see that there are a lot of riders out there that are hungry for motorcycle events in or near their location. With that being said, we tried to be aware and share as many as we could find. We do our best in our online and social media searches, but I know we missed a few. So, here is a reminder, that if you would like to have your event listed for free in Thunder Roads® Michigan Magazine you must email us the information in time or tag us in it. We are more than happy to add you in and help get the word out! That goes for our Readers Rides each month also. Send them in!

With May being Motorcycle Awareness month, let's do our part as riders and make sure we are not putting our lives completely in the hands of others. Ride safe. Ride smart. Ride defensively and always looking around you at the "what ifs." If you think or feel in your gut that the person coming at you, at the stop sign, or the light isn't seeing you... be ready. Ride your ride, but don't put yourself in harm's way and become part of a statistic. We are more than that to our friends, family, and all who love us. Help improve your chances of coming back home from a day of freedom.

Bike nights are back! There have been some "kick-off" events that have already happened in April and May is exploding with more bike nights and blessings every day. Well, with that being said we'll see you out and about this summer as we do our best to support all our advertisers and organizations that support us. Yes, and those that don't...lol. We'll take this opportunity to thank our advertisers that make all of this possible. Thank you again for helping keep Thunder Roads® Michigan Magazine FREE to our readers and helping us grow our reach all over our beautiful state of Michigan!!

See you in Baldwin!!

Rolling Thunder Ride for Freedom Nationwide

Rolling Thunder Inc. Michigan Chapter 5, Duane O'Parka

Finally, the season is here! With a few warm days behind us and the promise of more to come, it is definitely go time for events throughout the state! With Memorial Day being the unofficial start of summer and quickly approaching, I wanted to find something that I could look forward to attending, but also something that has relevance to what Memorial Day encompasses.

I remembered my good friend Duane O'Parka, with Rolling Thunder Inc. Michigan Chapter 5 has an annual event on Memorial Day weekend. As luck would have it, Duane reached out and agreed to come onto the show. We set the date and decided to meet on the steps of the Capitol Building in Lansing to record.

The day we met had plenty of sunshine, but it was still chilly outside. Like a champ Duane rode an hour to make the show and shared as much information as we could fit in about their organization and the upcoming ride. The ride they put on is The Rolling Thunder Ride for Freedom Nationwide and takes place Sunday May 26th. The ride starts at Motor City Harley-Davidson in Farmington Hills with registration starting at 6:30am and kickstands up at 8:30. The ride makes its way to the State Capitol Building where there will be guest speakers, vendors, food and things of that nature. I'd like to mention that Rolling Thunder Chapters 1 & 4 from the west side of the state will also be meeting up with Chapter 5 along the way to join in the ride to the Capital.

While shooting the shit with Duane before and after recording segments, I was happy to hear about another event Rolling Thunder has in the fall that includes The Vietnam Memorial Moving Wall. The event for that weekend is called Walls of Honor. What's ESPECIALLY cool about this is that for the first time EVER, the GoldStars Tribute Wall will make its way to Michigan. This is another awesome event put on by Rolling Thunder Chapter 5. Please check out their website at www.rollingthundermich5.com and their Facebook event page. Tune into the Rolling Thunder Episode of Riding with Brendan Podcast to hear about the Memorial Weekend event as well as the Walls of Honor event and many, many other events and enjoy my travels online. See you out there! Until next time....

BLUCEILLE

2001 Harley Davidson Road King FLHRCI 88ci, Stage 2, S&S 510 gear drive cams, Feuling oil pump, Cobra dual exhaust with Vance and Hines mufflers. Factory built as a classic but since changed some, adding hard bags and blackwall tires.

My backstory...

I was an adopted child and growing up in the 70s I loved motorcycles. I had 7 Japanese bikes over the years but quit riding when my daughter was in school. At the time, I was working 2 jobs, I had no time, and money was tight. Fast forward from 2006 about 15 years or so and with modern DNA technology, it got kinda crazy! Not only did I grow up having a sister who was also an adopted child, but since my birth family finding me, I now have 4 half siblings on my birth mother's side, 2 brothers, and 2 sisters. I also have 3 half-brothers and a half-sister on my birth father's side. So, I am now 1 of 10 siblings!

Turns out my motorcycle loving birth father had passed away, but my brothers Scott and Adam live close, and each have one of our father's Harleys. My half-brother Evan on my birth mom's side also rides a Softail Slim. I bought my Road King in 2021 with 32k miles on it so I could ride with them, and now I've hit 48k. I couldn't believe how much I missed being in the wind! It has been a few years now and we ride pretty regularly, have our own special Father's Day ride, plus ride to camp, and attend Easyriders Rodeo at Fowlerville together.

FLAT TRACK RACER CHARLES "CHUCK" GROVER

Charles Edward Grover
November 13th, 1915 - March 26th, 1993

Chuck Grover

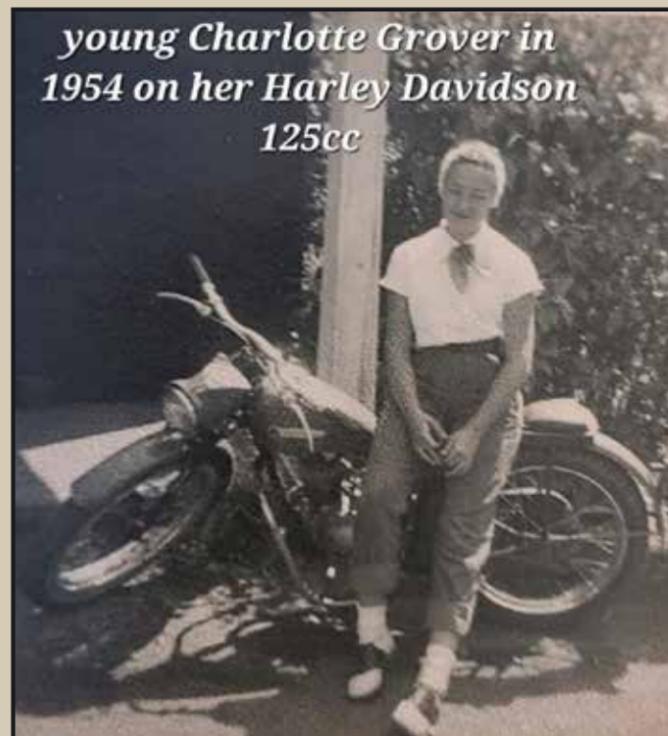

Chuck Grover was born in Marlette, Michigan, the son of Floyd and Gertrude Grover. Chuck had four sisters and he was raised in Michigan. On June 27th, 1936, Chuck married his sweetheart Viola Bouley. On April 26th, 1938, Chuck and Viola would welcome daughter Charlotte (his only child)

Viola Grover sitting on Chuck's race bike into the world. His passion for the sport even found its way to his grandson, Chuck Kelly who also was a skilled rider. Chuck started racing for Dick Beane in 1938 and became a professional racer within a couple of years. He worked a factory job at Mueller Brass for many years and in the later part of his working career he worked as a construction worker. Although he always worked a regular job, he also worked on motorcycles on the side, and of course he also raced professionally. At some point in his career, he also had some small dealerships with Harley Davidson, then later a Norton and Ducati dealership, and later a partnership in a Honda Dealer for a short time.

young Charlotte Grover in 1954 on her Harley Davidson 125cc

When daughter Charlotte grew up, she married Neil Kelly of Port Huron. Neil fit in with the Grovers well as he was also a motorcycle enthusiast. Charlotte was quite a skilled motorcycle rider herself, just like her Mom. Neil and the Grovers were all members of the Sunset Riders Motorcycle Club in St. Clair County Michigan. Chuck and Neil raced together on a Harley Davidson non-studded sidecar bike and seldom ever lost a race for many years. The family all rode motorcycles together on the road for different events and Chuck and Neil both competed in several different types of motorcycle racing. At different times, both Chuck and Neil had performed daredevil feats such as riding a motorcycle through a flaming wooden wall or as it was called "smashing through the flaming wall of death."

1961 Ice Racing

Although Chuck never won a National Race, he had some podium finishes including a 2nd place at Shreveport and a 3rd, a 4th, a 5th, and a 6th place finish at the famous Springfield Mile Championship. He also won some very big Non-National Races like Dayton several times and the Michigan State Championship and established himself as one of the top Dirttrack Racers in the world.

A WINNING TEAM

Chuck Grover and Leo "Mad" Anthony, photographed just after their sensational one-two victory at Dayton Speedway, May 18, are riding as a team out of Griff Cathers's shop at Port Huron, Mich. Anthony taught Grover all he knew and now the pupil is beating the teacher.

Chuck was a factory Harley Davidson team racer from 1941 to 1953. Like many top racers of his time, Chuck missed out on racing Nationals during some of his prime years because of racing being shut down during World War II. He was considered to be an expert mechanic and did all of the mechanical work on his own bike and occasionally for other racers as well. After his professional flat tracking career was over, he was a champion non-studded ice racer for many years and was considered by some to be the greatest non-studded ice racer of all time.

Chuck was also an Honorary Lifetime Member of the Port Huron Motorcycle Club. He was heartbroken when he lost his wife in a motorcycle accident in 1975. Retiring from the workforce in 1977, Chuck made his own homemade trike motorcycle and enjoyed riding it around and would even take it to Florida every year. He remarried eventually to second wife Sarah, and he continued to enjoy being a motorcycle enthusiast and is said to have even rode his motorcycle with his dog Corky.

The MHRA banquet was last month, and the South Lyon Spark Plugs Auto Club hosted the event this year. For their fundraising they chose Operation Injured Soldiers to be the beneficiary. It was a busy time with plenty of people donating to raise money for our charity that night, and we are very grateful. We are also looking forward to supporting their Car show that the South Lyon Spark Plugs will be hosting on June 23. Plans are underway for the Annual Lyon Ride taking place on July 20. This year it will be a FUN RUN that starts at James F. Atchison Memorial Park and ends at the New Hudson Inn. To participate, you can ride your motorcycle or drive a car. It's $25 for the driver and $20 for the passenger. This includes a ride t-shirt and some tasty food provided by the New Hudson Inn, and there will be tickets available for the raffle prizes. First Place is $250, Second place is $100, and third place is $50. This event is always a fun time with friends, and it's important for us to share that 100% of the proceeds raised are used to fund the events we put on for our veterans, free of charge. The weather does not matter as it is a rain or shine event. Come on out and help us support the veterans. Some of the events that OIS hosts for veterans include but are not limited to fishing, hunting, football games, hockey games, and sky diving. There are a lot of ideas as the season is still early, but we are always working on more ways to get our veterans back outdoors. Follow the OIS Riders Facebook page for updates!

THE MOTORCYCLE LAWYER ON THE LAW

You Better Have this Special Insurance on Your Car if You Are Ever in a Motorcycle Wreck

As you may have guessed by now, May is Motorcycle Awareness Month. What you may not know is how essential it is to have this special insurance on your car in case of a motorcycle wreck.

If you are in a motorcycle accident with a car, truck, or van, insured motorcyclists get no-fault benefits (payment for medical bills, wage loss, medical mileage, and house chores). If you are the owner and operator of an uninsured motorcycle, you do not get these no-fault benefits. This could mean hundreds of thousands of dollars in medical bills you are stuck with.

If you are operating or riding on a MOTORCYCLE and you are involved in an accident with a motor vehicle (a car, truck, van, but not another motorcycle), the automobile insurance company that is responsible for paying your no-fault benefits is determined by what we call the Order of Priorities. We just follow down a list of people involved in the crash who potentially have insurance until we identify actual insurance coverage on a person in the highest order of priority.

I can explain it better with an example: I'm in a motorcycle accident with a car. We first establish that I did have insurance on my motorcycle, so I'm eligible for no-fault benefits. Next, we inquire whether the owner, and then next, the operator of the car involved in the crash has insurance. If so, that insurance company must pay my benefits.

If there is no insurance for the owner or operator of the car, we then go to the next person with insurance in the Order of Priorities. In this example, it would be the car or truck insurance company of the operator of the motorcycle. In other words, we go to my (motorcyclist's) car insurance. Yes, the car that was in my garage and had nothing to do with my motorcycle accident can be the insurance company responsible for paying.

I advise that you choose "unlimited PIP Medical" (or as much as you possibly can afford) on YOUR CARS, TRUCKS, and VANS (your "motor vehicles"). Why? Because if you get in a motorcycle wreck and the at-fault driver is uninsured, your no-fault benefits will come from insurance on YOUR motor vehicle (car, truck, or van, not motorcycle) and it's best for you to have UNLIMITED PIP Medical which pays all your medical bills for life.

FYI: You can't buy No-Fault insurance on a motorcycle. No-fault benefits never come from your motorcycle insurance. We now choose the amount of PIP Medical coverage for our "motor vehicles" (cars, trucks, vans, not motorcycles).

Michigan No-Fault Medical coverage used to pay for all auto-injury related medical bills for life. It was the best coverage in the country. As this is no longer the case, we now must choose our desired amount of PIP Medical coverage on our cars, trucks and vans.

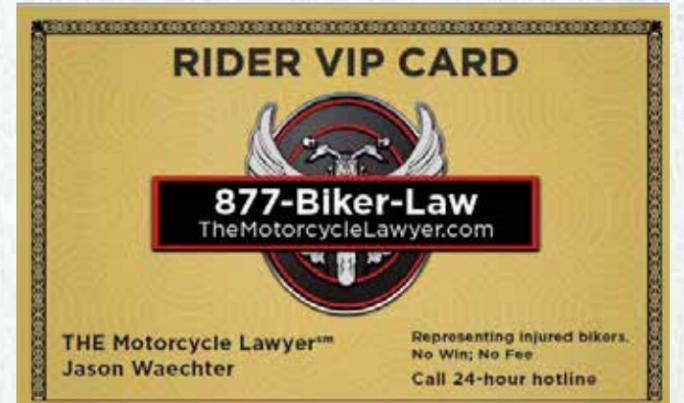

The choices are:

- Unlimited, $500,000, or $250,000.
- People with qualified Medicaid recipients can choose $50,000 coverage.

Again, we recommend motorcyclists choose unlimited PIP medical coverage on their cars, trucks, and vans because it is basically the insurance policy second in line of priority to pay the no-fault benefits after a motorcycle accident. Given the many uninsured drivers on our roads, there is a decent chance that if you are in a motorcycle accident with a motor vehicle it will be uninsured, and you'll end up getting no-fault benefits from your own car's insurance company.

Check out our website, www.motorcyclelawyermichigan.com, for 50 one-minute video explanations about Michigan motorcycle law, no-fault law, and insurance.

CHARLIE CHAPLAIN'S CORNER: THE UNBREAKABLE BONDS OF BROTHERHOOD: A REFLECTION ON PROVERBS 17:17 FOR MOTORCYCLE ENTHUSIASTS

In the vast expanse of the open road, where the rhythm of the engine beats in harmony with the heart, there lies a profound truth that binds every motorcycle enthusiast. It's a truth as timeless as the road itself, echoing the wisdom of Proverbs 17:17, which gently reminds us, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity." As we cruise through the winding paths of life, this simple yet powerful message serves as a beacon of light, guiding us through the twists and turns of our journey.

A Friend Loves at All Times

Imagine the road as a metaphor for life's journey—sometimes smooth, often bumpy, and occasionally taking us through uncharted territories. In this journey, just as in life, the companionship of friends who share our passion for riding provides a source of joy, strength, and inspiration. These are the friends who stand by us, not just when the ride is smooth and the skies are clear, but also when the storm clouds gather, and the roads become treacherous.

Let's embrace the essence of this proverb as a reminder of the unconditional love and unwavering support that flourishes within the motorcycle community. It's a love that doesn't keep score, doesn't hold grudges, and doesn't fade when the going gets tough. Instead, it's a love that grows stronger with every mile, nurtured by shared experiences, mutual respect, and the sheer joy of riding together.

A Brother is Born for Adversity

Adversity is an inevitable part of life, and just as the road can sometimes lead us into storms, so too can life present us with challenges that test our spirit and resolve. It is during these times that the true meaning of brotherhood comes to the forefront. A brother—or sister, for that matter—isn't just someone who rides with us under the sun; they're the ones who stand with us in the rain, offering their support, guidance, and companionship when we need it the most.

This aspect of the proverb shines a light on the depth of the bonds that connect motorcycle enthusiasts. These aren't merely friendships formed by a common interest; they are bonds forged in the fires of adversity, strengthened by the trials we face and overcome together. They remind us that we are never alone, that there's always someone willing to ride out the storm with us, to offer a helping hand, a word of encouragement, or simply their presence when words fall short.

Riding with Positivity and Hope

Let us view our rides—and our lives—through a lens of positivity and hope. Every journey on our motorcycles offers an opportunity to spread kindness, uplift others, and build stronger, more meaningful relationships. Let's ride with the intention of being a source of light and encouragement to our fellow riders, knowing that the love and support we offer will be returned tenfold.

Let this proverb remind us to cherish and nurture the friendships and brotherhoods within our community. Let's commit to being there for one another, not just in times of joy and celebration but more importantly, in moments of need and adversity. Through this commitment, we reinforce the foundation of our community, making it a source of strength, comfort, and inspiration for all.

A Journey of Unconditional Love and Support

In the grand tapestry of life, where each thread represents a moment, a memory, or a milestone, the message of Proverbs 17:17 stands out as a vibrant hue, coloring our experiences with the warmth of unconditional love and the strength of unwavering support. As motorcycle enthusiasts, we share a unique bond, a brotherhood and sisterhood that transcends the mere act of riding. It's a bond that embodies the essence of this proverb, reminding us of the beauty and power of genuine friendship and support.

Let's carry this message in our hearts as we traverse the highways and byways of life, riding with purpose, passion, and positivity. Let's make every journey a testament to the enduring spirit of camaraderie that defines our community, knowing that together, we can face any challenge, overcome any obstacle, and emerge stronger and more united than ever before.

In closing, let us ride forward with the joyous knowledge that in this journey of life, enriched by the bonds of friendship and brotherhood, we are truly blessed. For in the words of Proverbs 17:17, we find not just a verse, but a guiding principle for our lives, a reminder that through love, support, and unity, we can weather any storm and celebrate every sunrise together, on and off the road.

Remember, my friends, in the vast expanse of life's highways, the most precious cargo we carry is not the gear on our bikes, but the love in our hearts and the bonds that unite us.

Until our next journey in Chaplain's Corner, ride safe, and may God's blessings guide you on every road you choose.

VETERANS CORNER

The Difference between Memorial Day and Veteran's Day "Let's put the memorial back in Memorial Day."

Memorial Day is not the same as Veteran's Day. While Veterans Day honors all who have served honorably in our military. Memorial Day focuses particularly on those who have died in the line of duty. This distinction is quite important to military-connected children and their families.

"Three years after the Civil War ended, on May 5, 1868, the head of an organization of Union veterans -- the Grand Army of the Republic (GAR) -- established Decoration Day as a time for the nation to decorate the graves of the war dead with flowers. Maj. Gen. John A. Logan declared that Decoration Day should be observed on May 30. It is believed that date was chosen because flowers would be in bloom all over the country." (www.va.gov)

It gradually became known as Memorial Day and was declared a federal holiday and moved to the last Monday in May to organize a three-day weekend beginning in 1971. The passage of the National Holiday Act of 1971 by Congress made it an official holiday.

Those who seek to remind people of the more somber meaning of Memorial Day have advocated for Congress to change the date of the holiday back to May 30, instead of making it part of a three-day weekend of leisure.

Though those efforts have not been successful, Congress established "The National Moment of Remembrance" in 2000, asking Americans to pause for a minute of silence and reflection in honor of those who died in military service at 3 p.m. local time on Memorial Day.

For those who have lost loved ones in the military, hearing "Happy Memorial Day" can feel jarring. Many veterans have expressed their displeasure with the phrase, deeming it inappropriate for the occasion.

"I do not know a single veteran who expects the country to mark this holiday with 24 hours of uninterrupted sadness," noting that "however well intentioned, this attitude does nothing to preserve the memory of those who died defending our way of life. In fact, it does the opposite."

"This Memorial Day, take a moment and head to the ocean or a special place when the sun is coming up or sometime during the day. Spend some time alone, and think about those who never made it back," after that "Then return to your family and be grateful for your life. Fire up the grill and invite friends over. And wish each of them a Happy Memorial Day, knowing full well that this day and the joy it brings are gifts you can never repay. Except, perhaps, by living a life full of happiness as all our fallen family and friends would have wanted."

After serving in the Army and Air Force for 31.5 years and participating in several Memorial Day events and funerals, this time of the year reminds me of why I served and makes me remember those who have given the ultimate sacrifice for our freedoms. Let's remember them together and not take our freedoms for granted. Have a Safe and Blessed Memorial Weekend. Pay Attention to the cage drivers and look out for each other. Remember those who gave the Ultimate Sacrifice.

"The National Moment of Remembrance encourages all Americans to pause wherever they are at 3 p.m. local time on Memorial Day for a minute of silence to remember and honor those who have died in service to the nation. As Moment of Remembrance founder Carmella LaSpada states: "It's a way we can all help put the memorial back in Memorial Day."

HOT RODS TOPICS

May is already here, and there are so many events and fundraisers that will be popping up all around the state to get your attention. Please continue to be kind and helpful in any way and wherever you can. As motorcyclists, we know that it almost goes without saying, right? It means so much to whatever or whomever you decide to donate to and believe me when I tell you that anything you can do will make a difference in someone's life. It is worth every minute of your time and every penny you donate!

Also, don't forget May is Motorcycle Awareness Month. Get to your local Township or City Administrator and get your proclamation designating May as Motorcycle Awareness Month and help save lives!

On a sad note, our organization recently lost two members in a month. One to cancer and the other to unfortunate health issues. When you lose a brother or sister all the memories can come rushing back of all the times that you hung out. Like conversations over drinking a beer or sharing a meal. Or the times you laughed together, rode together, went to parties, family events, and then suddenly, they are no longer here. You feel that a part of you has been taken away and it's so darn hard to just let go of all the good and bad times that you shared together. Bikers have the biggest hearts, and we couldn't ask for better brothers or sisters who would help at a drop of a dime to be there for you when you need them the most. All that toughness that we are assumed to have can quickly go away and the caring, gentleness and concern for our brothers or sisters comes to light. There is no better feeling than knowing that. The memories we make together are priceless and unforgettable! We will miss you John (Stubs) Jackson and Adolph Mulzer. May you ride to heaven with the wind at your back and no obstacles in your way. Throttle down hard and ride free my brothers! St. Peter will open the gates to heaven when he hears you coming. Ride and rest forever in peace. Stay safe,

REGIONS AND CONTACTS

It's another beautiful day here in Gladwin, MI and I'm quickly getting used to this occasional 70-degree weather. It's great to have the windows open and the smell of a bonfire in the breeze. Hopefully everyone has been enjoying it right along with us!

This month I'd like to honor some very good people that volunteer their hearts, minds, and souls to ABATE of Michigan. They lead their regions with great care and bring so much joy when they see us attending their meetings or others. You'll hear me say it repeatedly, I'm so proud to be a part of this magnificent group of regional coordinators or as we are called, RC's. So, without further ado let me introduce them to you and share where they are located in this beautiful state of Michigan. When you can, go and enjoy a beverage, a meal, or a ride with them. They all do a great job creating and planning events to give you the perfect day or weekend ride. They are there for you and welcome you to join them once a month for a meeting. There are some changes going on currently and some of the Regions may show TBD until things get settled, but they do exist!

We encourage you to visit the ABATE of Michigan website at <http://www.abateofmichigan.org>

There you will find information on everything from who our officers and board members are, see how to purchase ABATE products, and where our events will be held in each region. We would love to have you join us at any number of these regions. If you have questions, you can contact me, Merry Garrett at merrysgarrett@yahoo.com
Until then, ride like you never have done before.

Let the wind blow in your hair, let the sun shine on your face

BULLET POINTS

BY GREG DENAY, AKA JOHNNY

Happy May everybody! I certainly do hope all is well with all of you wonderful readers! I'm going to change things up a little bit this month from my normal rantings. I'm going to share my and my wife's experience of a unique Concealed Pistol License (CPL) class that we took. Though I already have my CPL, I wanted to compare this class to the class I took 4 years ago.

I had been bugging my wife, "Stabby", to get her Concealed Pistol License ever since I got mine. She was always hesitant to do so for the fact that she wasn't overly confident shooting a pistol, let alone carrying one. She had always shot rifles and smaller pistols outdoors, so after multiple trips to the gun range, she finally felt comfortable enough and decided to "pull the trigger". I told her to pick where she wanted to go, and after some looking around and feedback from some friends of ours that went there, she decided on Applied Training Solutions (ATS) in Midland, MI.

As I couldn't summarize it any better, straight from their website (www.simu-range.com): "The Applied Training Solutions Academy is a firearms training and skills training center located in the Midland Mall. The Academy is an initiative of Applied Training Solutions, LLC and was created to deliver world-class firearms training to both civilian and law enforcement personnel. ATS-Academy provides training and firearms learning experiences that are unavailable from other instructors or training centers in the Midwest. Our team of combat experienced instructors have developed a science-based curriculum of skills building drills and lessons that are not widely available. By leveraging the ATS-Midland Digital and private Live Fire Training Range, their unique experiences can be translated into training that is delivered in an environment both safe and conducive to learning. The lessons are designed to meet the need of both novice, advanced, and professional firearms users."

Now that she had decided where the best class for her was, there was only one problem, she wouldn't go alone. I had to go with her. If you have been to a CPL class before, you know how boring they can be. I knew I was going to be in for a long Saturday, so I was trying to think of ways to liven it up. At first, I had settled on being "that guy" and asking a thousand questions that are completely irrelevant to the class but then I thought "she might stab me".

So, I decided to not be an ahole for once and write an article on the experience. I know those of you that actually do know me are completely shocked.

We got to ATS (located in the Midland, MI mall) and signed in. Upon arrival, I met Kevin and pulled him to the side explaining who I was and that I was there mostly for moral support for my wife, but that I would also like to write about our experience for Thunder Roads Michigan Magazine. He readily agreed. Jason was the one doing much of the instruction. Jason was very knowledgeable and, like most instructors, tried to liven up the (in my opinion) most boring class you'll ever take.

The first hour...well let's just say I don't fully remember. It explained the different types of guns and their firing systems, different types of ammunition, etc. When I wasn't daydreaming or looking around, I would find myself mumbling what he was going to say before he said it. I would like to reiterate that is NOT a knock on Jason, it's that I already knew everything he was explaining. Jason did a much better job than the instructor I used 4 years ago.

Now comes the unique part of this class, the part I was looking forward to seeing. The Smokeless Range. Their website states "Smokeless Range is a development tool for both cognitive skills and marksmanship training." To me it looked like laser tag for adults, but with a purpose. The computer had ten different scenarios that you could run, and each one could be adjusted to varying levels of difficulty.

After establishing that everybody knew how to grip a pistol properly, it was time to "shoot". First up was Match Target. As soon as the image popped on the screen you had a shape and color that you had to find to shoot. Green circle, red square, blue hexagon, etc. This was working on identifying and finding the target. There were 14 targets in all for this stage. Then came the pop-up targets that is called the Transitional Drill. The silhouetted man would pop on the screen, and you got two shots, then it would pop up again in a different spot and again, two shots. Five targets in total.

After some fun with the simulated live fire, it was time for the most boring, but important part, laws, civil liability, and the use of deadly force. This portion must be taught by an attorney, or someone trained in the use of deadly force per Michigan law. Again, I tried to resist the urge to play on my phone or go and have a smoke, because there isn't anything they are going to say that I don't already know. But I urge you, if you do take a CPL class, PAY ATTENTION HERE! This stuff is important. That is why you'll hear me mention it as much as I can in these articles for you all.

Now for the really fun part, range time. It was roughly a 15-minute drive to the range, and we were given a range time of 4:00pm. Since we left at around 2:45, that gave us an hour to kill. So, we stopped by Lee Bar (as the range is right around the corner) so I could have a beer (poor Stabby was stuck with H2O) to try and ease my boredom. Don't worry, I wasn't planning on shooting anyways. This was my wife's day.

For as high-tech as this place was, the range surprised me. It was in somebody's backyard. Again, not a bad thing, just surprising. Now I understand why they told us to make sure we had boots. My wife didn't have boots, so after trying to lead her through the mud and water with minimal damage to her shoes, we reached the range. Everybody (excluding me) shot their state mandated 30 rounds of live ammunition out of a Sig Sauer P322. Nobody died or was injured, so in all it was a good time.

All in all, I felt that Applied Training Solutions (ATS) held a great class, for both beginners and experienced alike. In both simulated fire and live fire, both Jason and Kevin had first-class, hands-on training for the students. They answered any and all questions with extensive knowledge and respect. We will definitely be going back there again for some of the other simulated firing classes that they offer. It's a lot cheaper than ammunition after all. Check out their website for various class offers and scheduling. Stabby is especially looking into the Woman Shooter Wednesdays. Until next time, vote accordingly.

My wife is always on my azz cause I don't put things back where I got them, and then got really mad when I told her that People that are organized are just too lazy to have to look for things. She just walked out, so score!, yet again I proved her wrong.

(*An anagram is any word you can scramble the letters and create another word.)

"Dad, why is my sister named Teresa?"
 "Because you Mom loves Easter and Teresa is an anagram of Easter."
 "Oh, thanks Dad, that makes sense."
 "No problem, Alan."

A man and his wife, moved back home to their beloved Tennessee, from Minnesota. The husband had a wooden leg, and to insure it back in Minnesota would cost them $2000 per year. When they arrived in Tennessee, they went to an insurance agency to see how much it would cost to insure his wooden leg. The agent looked it up on the computer and said: "$39. even". The husband was shocked and asked why it was so cheap here in Tennessee to insure it because it cost him $2,000 in Minnesota? The insurance agent turned his computer screen to the couple and said, "Well, here it is on the screen, it says: Any wooden structure, with a sprinkler system above it, is $39. You just have to know how to describe your current situation. (*Hillbillies have a creativity all their own).

A woman made an appointment with her all-knowing Fortune Teller whom after reading her palms, her tarot cards and her crystal ball declared: "Your husband will meet a very violent end." Me: "Yes, I know, but will I be convicted?"

Jerry likes to share weird but true little gems of trivia that people won't soon forgeti.e., Elephants masturbate by slapping their massive penis against their chest until they ejaculate. (*if you googled that join the club)

After this recent eclipse, y'all women need to remember how big of a deal an event that only lasts 4 minutes actually is - - -

Kid in the back seat throwing a fit because he only has 20 movies to watch - Dad looks at kid in rearview mirror, locking eyes, and says, "When I was a kid, I watched the same thing every trip, it was called the window!"

Kids advice on marriage: Tell your wife she looks pretty, even if she looks like a dump truck. (* this kid is going places)

Lil' Joey just replaced the can of air freshner in the church bathroom with an air horn. And now, we wait.

Scrappy, a local beachgoer, couldn't even get a second look from any of the girls on the beach. So he headed over to Razor, at the lifeguard tower, to see if he had any advice for him. "Dude, it's obvious," said Razor. "You're wearing those gnarly old swimming trunks that make you look like an old geezer. They're majorly outta' style. Your best bet is to get yourself a Speedo—say, two sizes too small—and drop a potato inside it. You'll have all the babes you can handle, dude." The following weekend, Scrappy hits the beach with his brand-spanking-new tight-ass neon green Speedo and his potato, and it's not long before he approaches Razor at the lifeguard tower once more. "For cryin' out loud," yells Scrappy, "it's worse than before! Everyone on the beach acts digusted as I walk by, covering their faces, turning away, laughing! What's wrong now?" "Jeez, Scrap!" shrieks Razor, "The potato goes in front, dude!!"

Happy Mother's Day Amazing Women!
